- The Action Humanitaire et Communautaire (AHC) offers a language pairing program called Jumelage interlinguistique. www.ahc.umontreal.ca/ActivitesJumelage/jumelage.htm

Pavillon 3200, rue Jean-Brillant, unit B-2375 (on the mezzanine level)

The Jumelage interlinguistique gives you the opportunity from October to March to be paired with a student wanting to improve his English. In exchange, he helps you to improve your French. It's a good flexible way to practice and improve your French language skills.

Registration costs 10$ for the whole year.

- The French Help Center (CAF) offers individual tutoring to work on weaknesses in your written french. www.cce.umontreal.ca/caf.htm

Pavillon J.A. DeSève, 2332, Édouard-Montpetit, office C-4511

The CAF offers a six session tutoring program to students seeking help to improve their written French. The first meeting is to identify your weaknesses and to develop a specific program designed for your skill level. The other five meetings last one hour and take place once a week during five weeks. It is 25$ for undergraduate students and 50$ for graduate students.

- The Bureau de soutien aux nouveaux étudiants offers free French conversation workshops for intermediate level and higher. www.sae.umontreal.ca/nouveauxetudiants/activites.htm

Pavillon J.-A.-DeSève, 2332, boul. Édouard-Montpetit, office B-3429

These workshops are held once a week, during 9 weeks in small groups. A 50$ deposit is required and will be refunded if you attend at least 7 workshops.
